Education Office

Press Release – September 1, 2010

The Grand River Post Secondary Board (GRPSB) and staff wish to announce that unfortunately Pamela Montour had to resign as the Assistant Director of Student Services and Counselling. Fortunately, Taina (Ty) Lickers will be starting in the position as of September 1, 2010.

“We welcome Ty to our team with her 15 years of experience in Program Management and her dedication and passion for the success of our Aboriginal students.” states Rebecca Jamieson Director of GRPSEO who will also be returning on September 1, 2010. Rebecca Jamieson will continue to provide executive oversight services to the GRPSEO to ensure compliance with all board and operational policy and the maintenance of quality services to Six Nations post secondary students is maintained.

Ty is a graduate from McMaster University and is now working on her Masters of Education with Brock University. Her 15 years of program management and her most recent work with the Aboriginal Education and Student Services Department at Mohawk College will assist GRPSEO in their program delivery activities.
